

Job title: Senior Plaintiff Litigation Solicitor

Tracey Solicitors LLP is a leading Plaintiff Litigation firm. We are currently recruiting for a Senior Plaintiff Litigation Solicitor.

We offer a vibrant office with excellent work life balance, where we strive to protect the interests of those who suffer serious personal injuries.

We are the proud recipients of the LQSI Gold standard for the past 6 years and use a state of the art case management system in our day to day work.

We have a terrific team structure, a really rewarding client-centric culture, and a very forward-looking approach to our business - we've been paperless since 2008.

If you'd like to be part of our team, we'd love to hear from you.

The start date intended for this role is immediately.

The firm requires all Solicitors to be proactive and fully engaged in their roles within the practice.

The following traits are essential:

- Minimum 5 years' previous personal injury litigation experience with a good knowledge of litigation procedures and practices.
- Highly motivated and confident with the ability to work proactively alone and within a team.
- Excellent communication skills and a friendly manner to enable effective and positive engagement with colleagues, clients etc.
- Self-motivated, reliable, display technical ability, be timely and accurate in all work, and exhibit an ability to execute instructions and processes.
- Engage in continuous learning and adhere to excellent operational standards of the firm as independently verified by the institute of Legal Quality Standard of Ireland.
- Be commercially focused, client focused, self-motivated to 'skill up' for the job, exhibit sound judgement and provide competent legal advice.

Check out our website at www.traceysolicitors.ie for further information. You can view a short video about who we are by clicking here.

Please send your application to Leah O'Driscoll at:
lod@traceysolicitors.ie

